

I support XM Radio's right to share local information. Everyone who use XM has to decide if they are willing to pay for the information they receive. When they willingly pay they should be given the right to receive all the information they can.

People pay for cable and they receive local weather on the weather channel and one can receive local information on the net. Therefore, XM radio should have that same right!!

God bless,
Bryan